THE K. OF P.

The Annual Session of the Grand Lodge.

The twelfth annual session of the Grand Lodge, K. of P., met in this city yesterday, George J. D. King presiding as Grand Chancellor. The following Grand Officers were pres-

Benjamin Curler, P. G. C. Geo. J. D. King, G. C. T. R. Hofer, G. V. C. W. S. Beard, G. P. Geo. W. Hatch, G. M. of E. A. B. Stoddard, G. K. of R. and S. J. F. Atkin, G. M. at A. Archibald Steel, G. I. G.

C. A. Brooks, G. O. G. All the Lodges responded to roll call except Nos. 10, 11, 13, 14, 16 and 18. About 40 delegates were

The annual reports of the Committees were submitted and ordered printed.

The reports from the various lodges showed a membership in the State of 900, an increase of 60 since last year.

A large amount of the usual routine business was disposed of, much of the proceedings not being of general interest to the public.

The reports from the various lodges showed the Order in this State to be in a very flourishing condition. In the evening the members visited the lawn party at Brother Hanford's and will be entertained tonight at a grand banquet tendered by the Groceries, members of Carson Lodge No. 4.

The Grand Lodge will conclude its session today.

The 400 Yard Case.

Yesterday Maud Raymond was tried in the Justice Court with closed doors for maintaining a house of ill fame within 400 yards of the southward school house.

District Attorney Summerfield prosecuted the case and Woodburn and McGowan appeared for the de-

Several citizens testified as to the general reputation of the place, that it had been known as a house of ill repute for years. Woodburn for the defense read several authorities to the effect that one woman living in a house for criminal purposes did not make it a house of ill fame within the statutes. He also in his address to school houses, who are not classed as soiled doves, but whom they can prove as such.

The authorities will pay no attention to these threats but go ahead with the prosecution of the case.

Horse Thieves Captured.

Sheriff Bottsford and Watson Marks captured C. J. Clifford and Chas Bowers, the horse theires who got away with Harry Wackman's horse from Elk Grove in Sacramento county, Cal., last Friday.

Darado county, has been in hot pursuit for two days, and yesterday morning Sheriff Bottsford heard the thieves were near Dayton. He left immediately in company with Marks and caught up with them going which was led the stolen horse, made STAPLE AND such a racket that the ruscals were unable to hear the approaching officers, who waited on them with cocked revolvers. When they realized how nextly they were nabbed, one of them remarked: "Its a good thing you got the drop on us er you would have had some shooting on your hands."

Both admitted guilt and agreed to return without requisition papers. They will be taken back to Califorma along with the stolen horse today by Sheriff Burnham.
